VOLUME XXX—1985

A

Accident Phenomenon, The. Brian Emerson. April p. 20.

Avoiding Catastrophic Losses: A Team Approach to Safety Assurance. John P. Gausch and Alice Bly Gausch. Sept. p. 26.

B

Back Injury Prevention—Are Our Programs Adequate? Donald F. Jones. Feb. p. 18.

Behavior Based Safety Management. R. Eugene Earnest. Jan. p. 32.

C

Centralized Accident Investigation Program. Rosalene E. Graham. May p. 38.

Changing Assumptions About Loss Frequency. Arthur E. Parry. Oct. p. 39

Classified Accident Investigation Procedures, The. Edward E. Adams. Aug. p. 30.

Considerations in the Development of a Hazard Control Plan. R. T. Hughes, P. E. Caplan and F. W. Godbey. Dec. p. 13.

D

Developing Safety Awareness—A Primary Approach. Frank Chlad and Dorothy Chlad. Jan. p. 20.

F

Failsafe: Reducing Injuries from Slips and Falls. Robert Pater. Oct. p. 15.

Forensic Investigations. D. L. Krause. April p. 28.

G

Glass: The Invisible Hazard. Aaron Goldsmith. June p. 23.

H

Harmonizing Safety and Design in Engineering Curricula. Douglas Muster. Feb. p. 35.

Hazard Association Value of Safety Signs, The. Thomas F. Bresnahan. July p. 26.

Hazard Communications Dilemma, The. Thomas S. Altvater. Jan. p. 13.

Human Factors in Operational Communications. Jerome Lederer. April p. 14.

I

Improvement of Driver Attitudes. P. Knipping, E. Burkhart and J. Cobb. Nov. p. 17.

Improving Health and Safety Performance in a Federal Agency. Gilbert F. Stone, Harry E. Lindler and B. Eugene Walters. July p. 32.

Inspection and Observation: Another View. Marilyn F. Kasules. Feb. p. 26.

L

Leadership Qualities in the Safety Practitioner. Dennis F. Sigwart. Dec. p. 18.

Lightning Protection for Metal Production Storage Tanks. Frank K. Lightfoot, Jr., March p. 21.

M

Measuring a Product Liability Claim Defense Program. G. David Gillock. May p. 24

Model for a Hearing Conservation Program, A. Denis E. Zeimet. Aug. p. 13.

Moral Component of Our Professional Challenge, The. William English. March p. 15.

Motion Analysis and Training for the 80's. Robert Pater. June p. 26.

Multi-disciplinary Approach for Reducing Back Injury Disability, A. Dan James. Sept. p. 17.

N

New Direction in Loss Control Management, A. Thomas A. Smith, April p. 32.

1984 Nevada F.F.A. State Officer Safety Tour, The. Douglas G. Smith and George C. Hill. Sept. p. 47.

Non-evacuation of Compartmented Fire-resistive Buildings: It Makes Sense and Can Save Lives. James N. Macdonald. Sept. p. 40.

P

Product Safety and Liability Prevention. David Dodge. March p. 25.

Prototype Safety Career Development Plan, A. William E. Coleman. May p. 30.

Providing Information and Instruction on Occupational Safety and Health to Managers. Earl D. Heath. Oct. p. 21.

R

Realities of Safety Education. Dennis J. Murphy. July p. 15.

Road Accident Reconstruction. Dino Rossini. Feb. p. 30.

Role of Computers in Product Liability Loss Control, The. A. V. Riswadkar. May p. 17.

S

Safety and Health Management: Professional Development of the Staff. James L. Burson and William H. Spain. Aug. p. 21.

Safety Faculty Requirements. Clifton D. Crutchfield. Jan. p. 24.

Safety in the Workplace—The British Approach. Terrence Willis. Jan. p. 40.

Safety Management Maturity Grid, The. Richard G. Hughes. June p. 15.

Safety Management—Selected Rules of Thumb. Terrence E. Meehan. Nov. p. 20.

Six Unresolved Safety Problems. Jerome Lederer. July p. 21.

Stress, Heart Disease and Safety Management. Charles I. Barron, Nov. p. 13.

Stress-loss Connection, The. Melvin L. Capell. March p. 33.

T

Total Loss Control is Good Construction Management. Adrian D. Atkins. Dec. p. 22.

U

Use of Halons as Fire Extinguishing Agents, The. Thomas F. Cecich. Jan. p. 28.

W

Why We Need a More Realistic Assessment of Nuclear Power Plant Safety. J. A. Mann and S. B. Jacobs. Feb. p. 13.

Will the Real Safety Professional Please Stand Up? C. Fred Fetterolf. Aug. p. 25.

Worker Injuries: Applications of Criminal Liability. George A. Peters. Sept. p. 34.

Working Safety Without Training. James G. Brewer. June p. 20.

PS SUBJECT INDEX—1985

FIRE PROTECTION

Non-evacuation of compartmented fire-resistive buildings: It makes sense and can save lives by James N. Macdonald. September, pp 40-46.
Use of halons as fire extinguishing agents, The, by Thomas F. Cecich, January, pp. 28-31.

MANAGEMENT ASPECTS

Accident Investigation and Analysis

Accident phenomenon, The, by Brian Emerson, April, pp. 20-26.
Centralized accident investigation program by Rosalene E. Graham, May, pp. 38-40.
Classified accident investigation procedure, The, by Edward E. Adams, August, pp. 30-33.
Forensic investigations by D. L. Krause, April, pp. 28-31.

Administration of Safety and Health Management

Behavior based safety management by R. Eugene Earnest, January, pp. 32-37.
Developing safety awareness—A primary approach by Frank Chlad and Dorothy Chlad, January, pp. 20-23.
Human factors in operational communications by Jerome Lederer, April, pp. 14-18.
Inspection and observation: Another view by Marilyn F. Kasules, February pp. 26-28.
Leadership qualities in the safety practitioner by Dennis F. Sigwart, December, pp. 18-20.
Measuring a product liability claim defense program by G. David Gillock, May, pp. 24-27.
Moral component of our professional challenge, The, by William English, March, pp. 15-19.
Motion analysis and training for the 80's by Robert Pater, June, pp. 26-29.
New direction in loss control management, A, by Thomas A. Smith, April pp. 32-34.
Safety in the workplace—the British approach by Terrence Willis, January pp. 40-44.
Safety management maturity grid, The, by Richard G. Hughes, June, pp. 15-18.
Safety management—selected rules of thumb by Terence E. Meehan, November, pp. 20-23.
Stress, heart disease and safety management by Charles I. Barron, November, pp. 13-16.
Total loss control is good construction management by Adrian D. Atkins, December, pp. 22-24.
Will the real safety professional please stand up? by C. Fred Fetterolf, August, pp. 25-27.
Working safely without training by James G. Brewer, June, pp. 20-22.

Fleet Management

Improvement of driver attitudes by P. Knipping, E. Burkhart and J. Cobb, November, pp. 17-19.
Road accident reconstruction by Dino Rossini, February, pp. 30-34.

Program Development

Avoiding catastrophic losses: A team approach to safety assurance by John P. Gausch and Alice Bly Gausch, September, 26-31.
Considerations in the development of a hazard control plan by R. T. Hughes, P.E. Caplan and F. W. Godbey, December, pp. 13-17.
Model for a hearing conservation program, A, by Denis E. Zeimet, August, pp. 13-20.

Risk Management

Changing assumptions about loss frequency by Arthur E. Parry, October, pp. 39-43.

Safety Training

Harmonizing safety and design in engineering curricula by Douglas Muster, February, pp. 35-40.
Prototype safety career development plan, A, by William E. Coleman, May, pp. 30-36.
Providing information and instruction on occupational safety and health to managers by Earl D. Heath, October, 21-25.
Realities of safety education by Dennis J. Murphy, July, pp. 15-19.
Safety and health management: Professional development of the staff by James L. Burson and William H. Spain, August, pp. 21-24.
Safety faculty requirements by Clifton D. Crutchfield, January, pp. 24-26.

OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH/INDUSTRIAL HYGIENE

Health Hazards in Industry

Fallsafe: Reducing injuries from slips and falls by Robert Pater, October, pp. 15-18.
Glass: The invisible hazard by Aaron Goldsmith, June, 23-25.
Hazard association value of safety signs, The, by Thomas F. Bresnahan, July, pp. 26-31.
Six unresolved safety problems by Jerome Lederer, July, pp. 21-25.
Stress-loss connection, The, by Melvin L. Capell, March, 33-35.

OCCUPATIONAL SAFETY

Hazardous Material

Hazard communications dilemma, The by Thomas S. Altvater, January, pp. 13-19.

Material Handling

Back injury prevention—Are our programs adequate? by Donald F. Jones, February, pp. 18-24.
Multi-disciplinary approach for reducing back injury disability, A, by Dan James, September, pp. 17-23.

Plant Layout and Design

Lightning protection for metal production storage tanks by Frank K. Lightfoot, Jr., March pp. 21-23.

Special Industries

Improving health and safety performance in a federal agency by Gilbert F. Stone, Harry E. Lindler and B. Eugene Walters, July, pp. 32-38.

1984 Nevada F.F.A. state officer safety tour, The, by Douglas G. Smith and George C. Hill, September, pp. 47-49.
Why we need a more realistic assessment of nuclear power plant safety by J. A. Mann and S. B. Jacobs, February, pp. 13-17.

PRODUCT DESIGN & SAFETY

Product Liability

Product safety and liability prevention by David A. Dodge, March, pp. 25-30.
Role of computers in product liability loss control, The, by A. V. Riswadkar, May, pp. 17-21.
Worker injuries: Applications of criminal liability by George A. Peters, September, pp. 34-38.
